Trading activity was slow on light demand. Major Northwestern port is still experiencing shipping issues with no resolution in sight and the railroad and trucking situation is still an ongoing factor in shipping product even with the dip in oil prices to around the 50.00 dollar mark. U.S. Secretary of Labor Tom Perez has been sent to deal with the port conflict as business from other countries (Hanjin) continue to leave the ports. The conflict is being reaped by Vancouver, B.C., as there ports are reporting increased business. The added challenge of the strength of the US dollar versus other currencies also makes things more interesting.
